

Some Cool Plots

Josh Sack

January 9, 2025

List of Figures

1	The population growth rate of counties in the blue wall states from the 2017 ACS to the 2022 ACS	2
2	Michigan: 2016 Presidential Election Results by County	3
3	Michigan: Each County's Two Party Vote as a Percentage of its estimated population in the 2013-2017 American Community Survey	4
4	Michigan: The percent change in the number of employed workers in each County from Trump's inauguration to February 2020, the Month before the pandemic hit	5
5	Michigan: The percent change in the number of employed workers in each county in Michigan minus the national percent change in the number of employed workers over the period from Trump's inauguration to February 2020	6
6	Michigan: County level population growth from the 2017 ACS to the 2022 ACS	7
7	Wisconsin: The percent change in the number of employed workers in each County from Trump's inauguration to February 2020, the Month before the pandemic hit	8
8	The percent change in the number of employed workers in each county in Wisconsin minus the national percent change in the number of employed workers over the period from Trump's inauguration to February 2020	9
9	Wisconsin: County level population growth from the 2017 ACS to the 2022 ACS	10
10	Pennsylvania: The percent change in the number of employed workers in each County from Trump's inauguration to February 2020, the Month before the pandemic hit	11

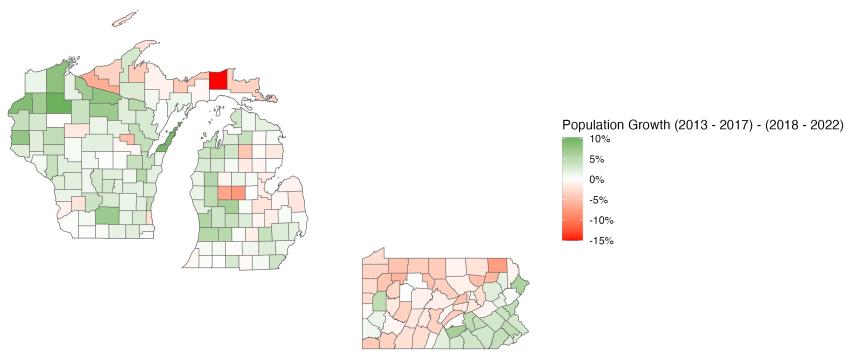

Figure 1: The population growth rate of counties in the blue wall states from the 2017 ACS to the 2022 ACS

- | | | |
|----|---|----|
| 11 | The percent change in the number of employed workers in each county in Pennsylvania minus the national percent change in the number of percent workers over the period from Trump's inauguration to February 2020 | 12 |
| 12 | Pennsylvania: County level population growth from the 2017 ACS to the 2022 ACS | 13 |
| 13 | 2020 Census: Hispanic Population Share by block in Union County, NC | 14 |

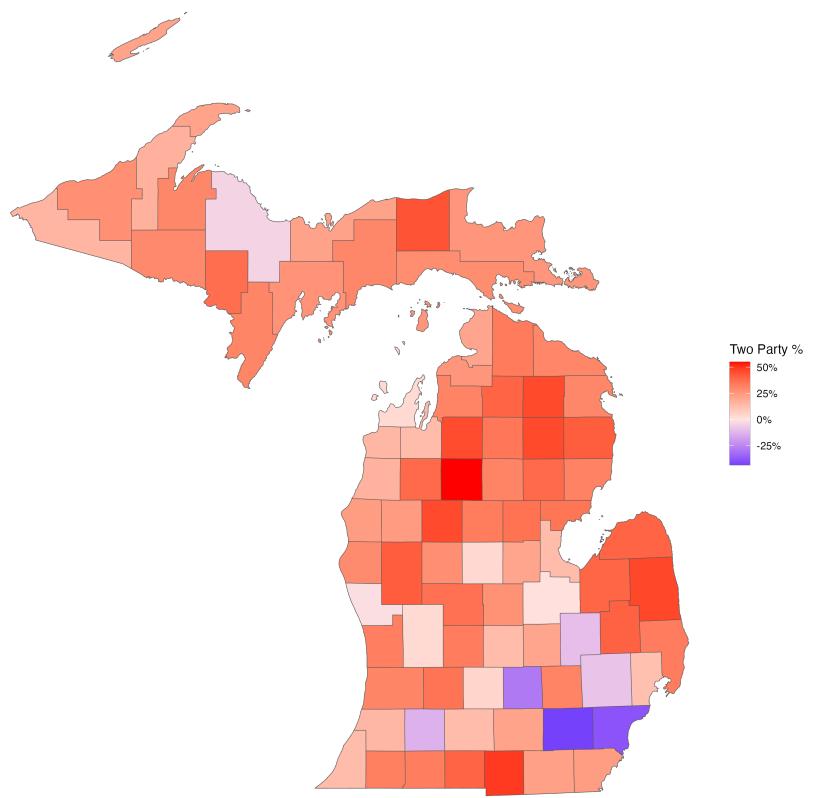

Figure 2: Michigan: 2016 Presidential Election Results by County

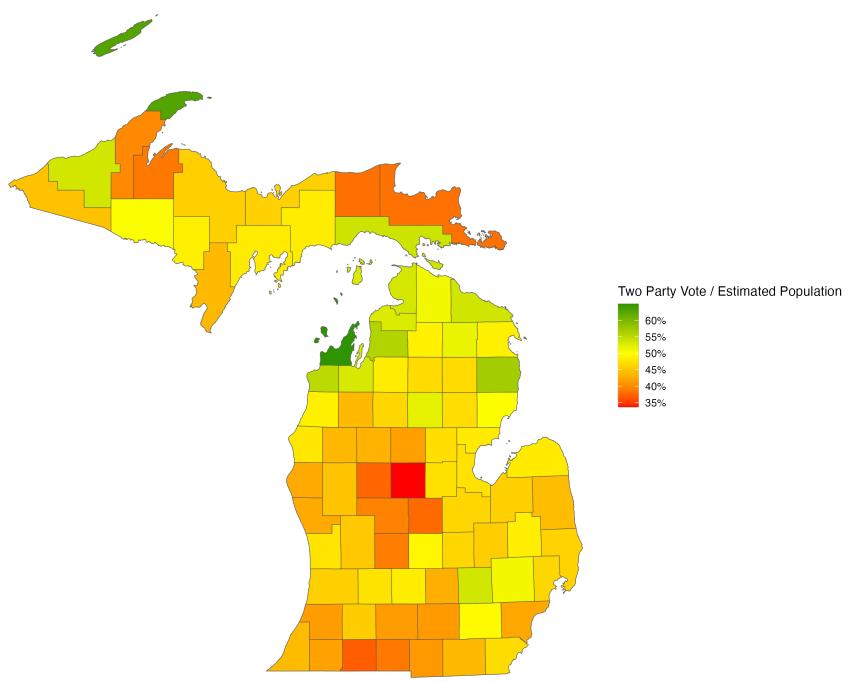

Figure 3: Michigan: Each County's Two Party Vote as a Percentage of its estimated population in the 2013-2017 American Community Survey

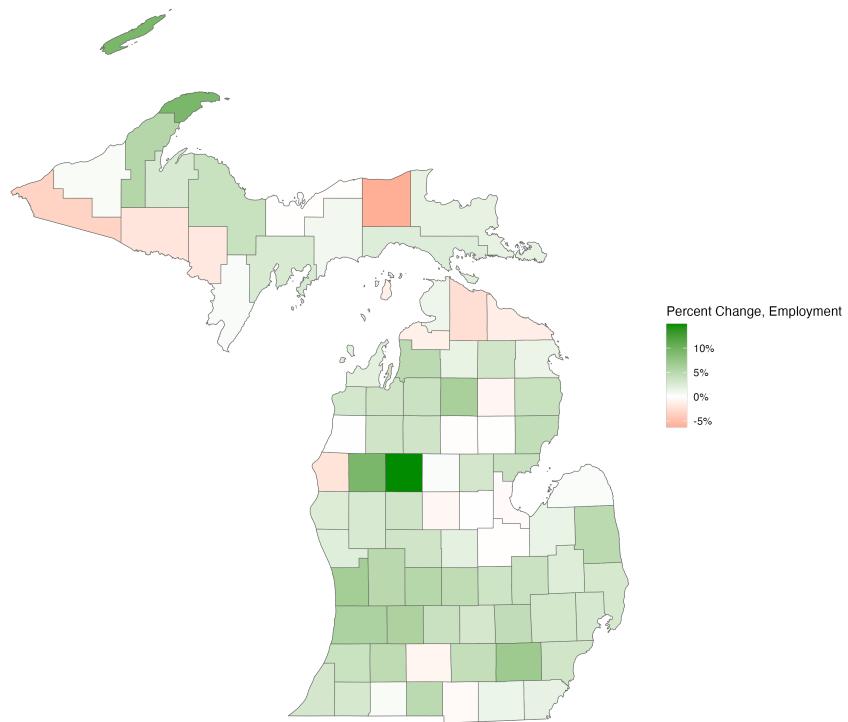

Figure 4: Michigan: The percent change in the number of employed workers in each County from Trump's inauguration to February 2020, the Month before the pandemic hit

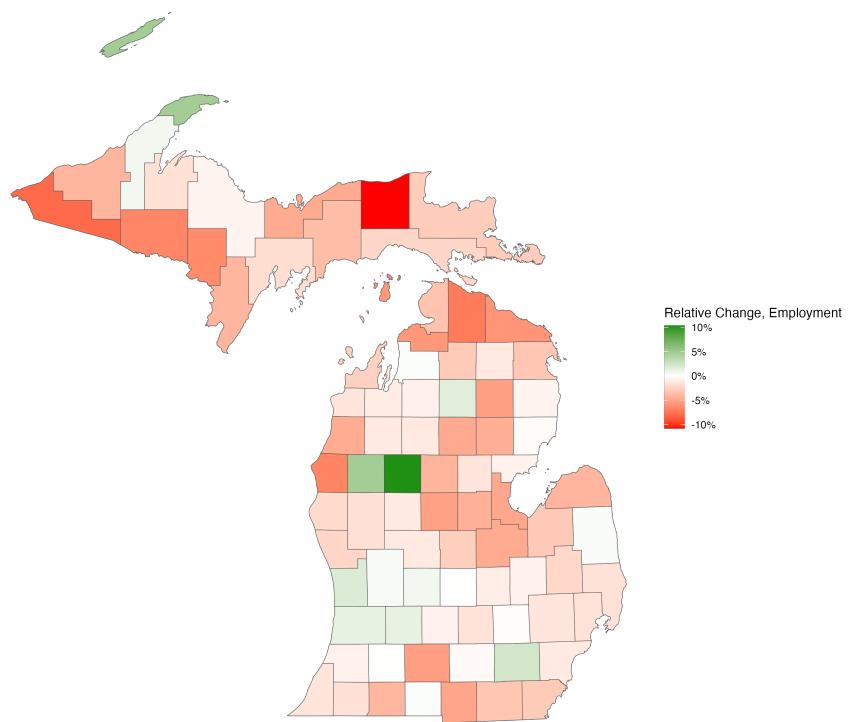

Figure 5: Michigan: The percent change in the number of employed workers in each county in Michigan minus the national percent change in the number of employed workers over the period from Trump's inauguration to February 2020

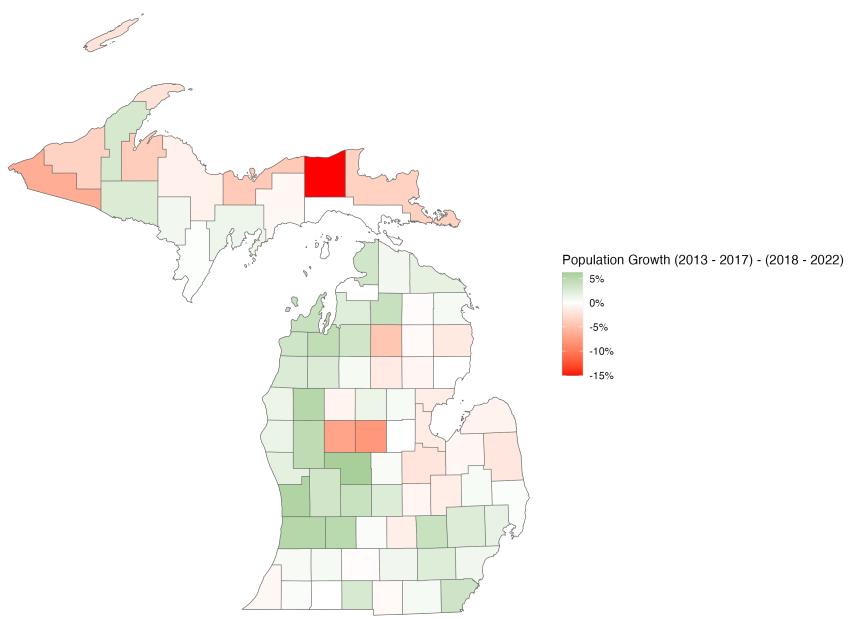

Figure 6: Michigan: County level population growth from the 2017 ACS to the 2022 ACS

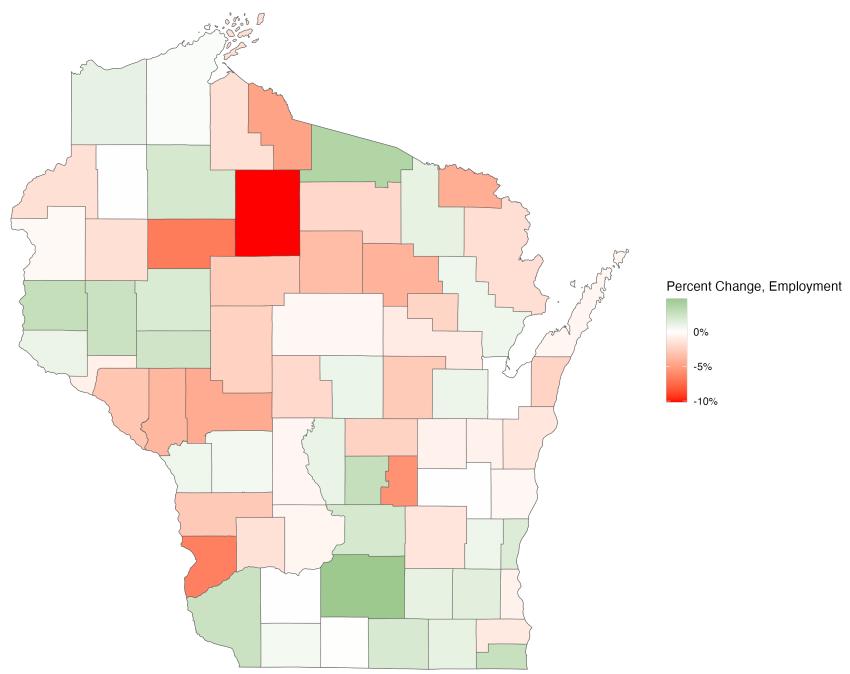

Figure 7: Wisconsin: The percent change in the number of employed workers in each County from Trump's inauguration to February 2020, the Month before the pandemic hit

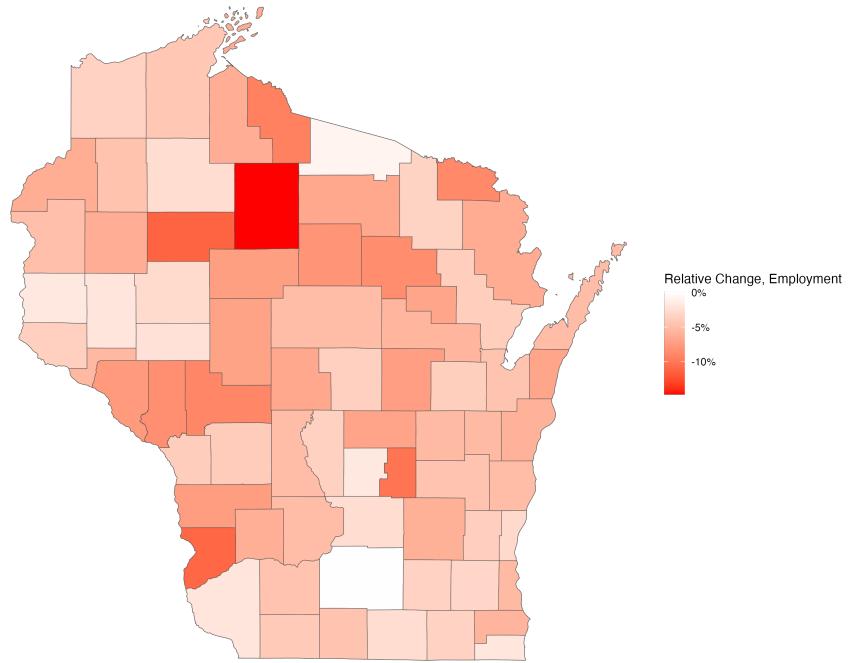

Figure 8: The percent change in the number of employed workers in each county in Wisconsin minus the national percent change in the number of employed workers over the period from Trump's inauguration to February 2020

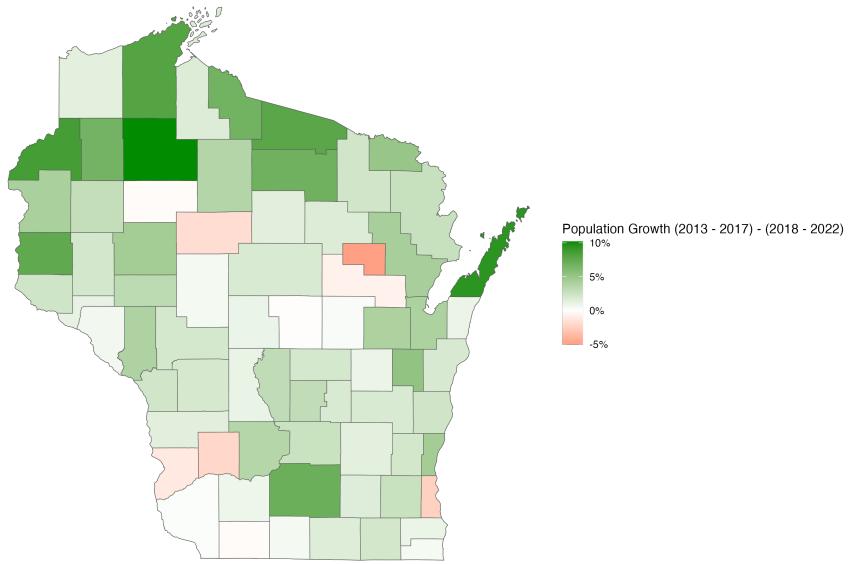

Figure 9: Wisconsin: County level population growth from the 2017 ACS to the 2022 ACS

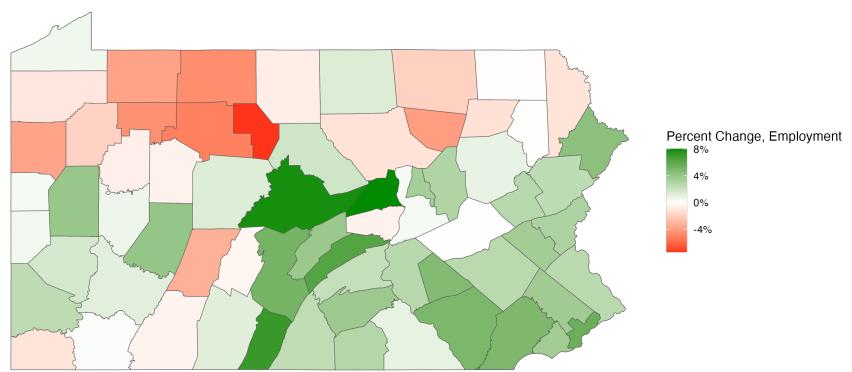

Figure 10: Pennsylvania: The percent change in the number of employed workers in each County from Trump's inauguration to February 2020, the Month before the pandemic hit

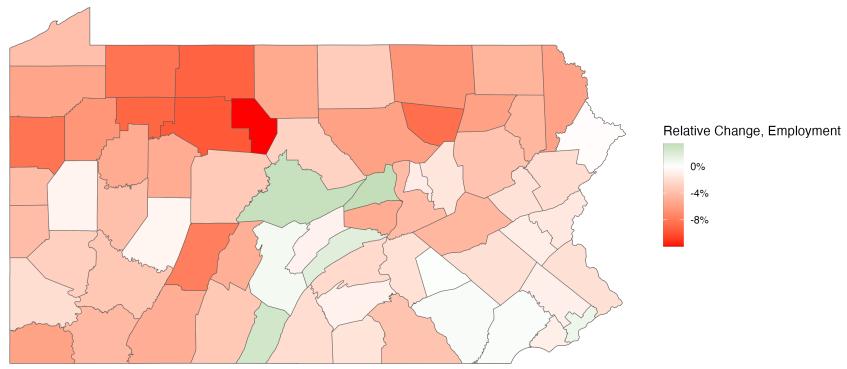

Figure 11: The percent change in the number of employed workers in each county in Pennsylvania minus the national percent change in the number of percent workers over the period from Trump's inauguration to February 2020

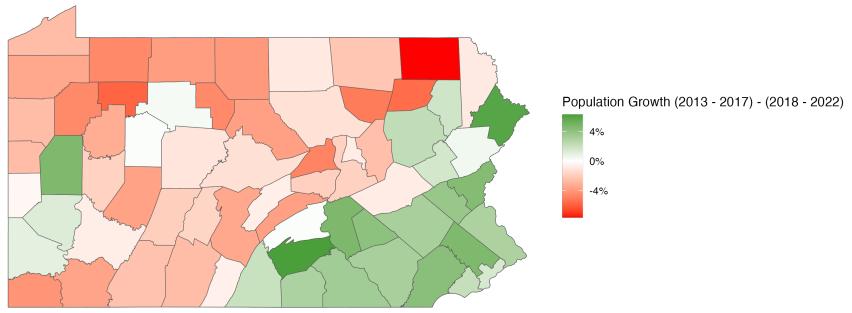

Figure 12: Pennsylvania: County level population growth from the 2017 ACS to the 2022 ACS

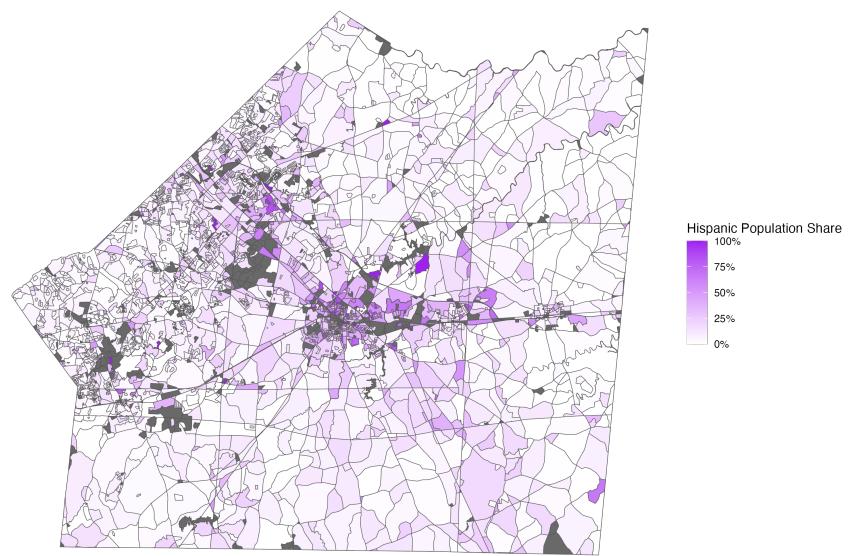

Figure 13: 2020 Census: Hispanic Population Share by block in Union County, NC